Judge J. H. Newton, who has been at home during the holidays, left last Monday for Florida, where he will continue appointing agents for a large book concern.

Few people have been able to get to town this week on account of the sleet, snow and ice. The mud hole we mentioned last week has been covered up for several days.

The Pickens chapter, U. D. C., will meet with Mrs. Bruce Hagood, on Friday, the 12th, at 3:30 p. m. This will be a very important meeting, and it is hoped that all the members will attend.

From the Greenville News we take the announcement of the marriage in that city last Sunday of Miss Bertha Fortner of Greenville and Mr. A. W. Masters of the Pleasant Grove section of this County.

The subject used by Rev. G. F. Kirby for discourse last Sabbath was that of prayer. Among the many good thoughts presented was one admonishing to universal prayer for conversions during the present year.

Rev. G. H. Waddell, who is well known and has many friends here and who for a number of years was connected with the Southern Christian Advocate as editor, was in town last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. M. C. Smith thinks there is a vast difference in the climatic conditions here and in Panama, where he lived several years. He has recently had a furnace and hot air pipes put in his home and now expects to keep warm.

In a private letter to the editor not long since Hon. Matthew Hendricks spoke very complimentary about the Sentinel and stated that the people appreciated the efforts we are making to give them the best paper in the county. We are here to serve and please the people.

Auditor Christopher says that he will be required under the present law in taking returns this year, to take a return from every person liable to road duty. This is required in order that the commutation road tax may be charged up on the auditor's books and collected as other taxes.

The cold wave struck us last Friday in full force, and Saturday was the coldest day we have experienced this winter. On Sunday morning the earth was covered with a layer of snow.

Another business change took place here last week when Parrish, Sloan & Co. swapped their stock of goods to W. D. Spearman for a stock of goods at Easley. Mr. Spearman will continue business here which will be in charge of competent men. Mr. A. E. Mull who has had charge of the store here for Parrish, Sloan & Co. has accepted a position with the Big Store and began work there this week.

An event of considerable interest was the marriage last Sunday, the 7th inst. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bolding of Miss Julia Bolding and Mr. Doyle Porter. After the ceremony the guests, numbering about fifty, were invited into the spacious dining room where a bountiful wedding dinner was served. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Foster in his usual impressive style.

Mrs. Tom Lynch, nee Miss Bessie Ligon, whose home is in Idaho, was visiting her relatives in this state when she received the sad news that her husband had been found dead in his room. She left for home immediately upon receipt of the telegram, accompanied by her two little children. The cause of Mr. Lynch's death has not yet been ascertained.

Death of Mrs. C. H. McDaniel. After a lingering and painful illness, Mrs. Courtie Hayden McDaniel died on the morning of the 5th inst. She was the second wife of Ex-Sheriff McDaniel, they having been married six years. She was a woman of many admirable traits of character, a high toned lady of the old school. Her body was carried to her former home at Rutherfordton N. C., and interred in the Episcopal cemetery beside her parents.

Mr. McDaniel and other relatives have the sympathy of many friends.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests were ushered into the dining room where a well filled table of good things awaited them. The repast was greatly enjoyed by all. The day following another feast of good things was heartily enjoyed at the hospitable home of the groom. Mr. Garrett is a son of Mr. W. R. Garrett of Six Mile and the bride a daughter of Robert Waldrop near Mountain View, all of this county. The many friends of the happy couple wish them a long and prosperous life.

Johnston-Borroughs. Rev. S. E. Borroughs, of Newton, Ala., and Miss Jennie Johnston, of Central S. C., were married at Clemson, on Jan. 3rd. They will make their home in Alabama.

Rev. Mr. Borroughs was pastor of the Baptist church at Central during 1911, and won his bride during his pastorate. Miss Johnston has many friends who wish them much happiness.

Killed By Train. A very sad accident occurred at Central last Saturday. From the accounts received here Mrs. J. H. Smith had been in Central and was returning home. She was in a buggy and had two small boys with her, one her own child and a nephew. She was crossing the Southern Railroad and as she reached the track a heavy freight train rounded out of a cut and struck her buggy. Her little nephew leaped from the buggy and saved himself from injury but Mrs. Smith and her son were badly injured.

She and her child were carried to Greenville that night for treatment at a hospital but she died from the effects of her injuries Sunday morning. The boy was not so badly injured and, at last accounts he was doing fairly well.

The accident is deplored by all and the sympathy of many friends go out to the bereaved family.
